

Lesson 8: You Can't Miss It!

Lesson Objective

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

- ✓ Talking about stores and other places
- ✓ Asking for and giving directions

When we go on a holiday, one of the activities that we may do is shopping for souvenir. We may do it in the market or in a store. So what's the difference?

The market is a place where products are bought and sold. A store or a shop is a retail place selling items to the public.

A checkout

An aisle

A cashier

A trolley

A basket

A plastic bag

Types of stores

- Grocery store : A store that sells food and other things used in the home.
- Supermarket : A very big store, especially one that has many different types of product, or one that has a lot of one type of product.
- Bakery : A place or area within a grocery store where bread, cakes, cookies, etc. are made or sold.
- Delicatessen/deli : A small store or an area within a grocery store that sells cheese, cooked meat, bread, etc.
- Liquor store : A small store where alcohol is sold.
- Drugstore : A store where you can buy medicines, beauty products, etc.
- Stationery store : A store for paper, envelopes, pens and other equipment used for writing.
- Hardware store : A store that sells equipment and tools that you use in your home and yard.
- Nursery : A place where plants and trees are grown and sold.
- Newsstand : A place on a street where newspapers and magazines are sold.
- Boutique : A small store that sells fashionable clothes or decorations.
- Convenience store : A store where you can buy food, newspaper, etc., that is often open 24 hours each day.
- Department store : A large store that sells many different products, such as clothes, kitchen equipment, etc.

Exercise. Complete the dialogue below.

A: _____ of that cheese, please.

B: Certainly. How much would you like?

A: _____.

B: Here you are. Anything else?

A: _____ of this beef?

B: Sure. This much?

A: _____, please.

B: This much?

A: No, _____. Thank you.

B: Anything else?

A: Yes, _____ 10 slices of that ham.

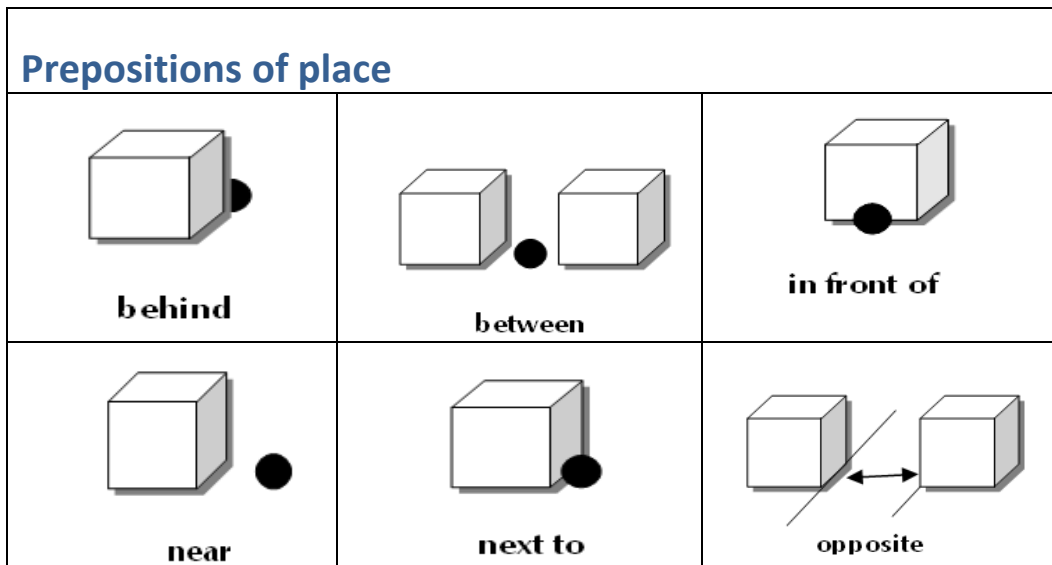

B: Sure. Here you are.

A: Thank you, _____.

A little more
About 100g
I'd like some
That's all
A little less... that's fine
Please give me about
Can I have some

Do you know how to get home from the shopping center? What about from the market to your favorite restaurant? Do you know the way by heart? I believe the answer will be yes. The route (the way) to the places that we usually go to is very familiar.

But, what about if we are going to the places that we don't know? For example, when we go on a holiday out of town, or maybe abroad? Of course we may look it up on the digital map. But what if our device is running out of battery? Of course we may ask the local people.

Between : in the middle of two things

Next to/beside: to the side of something

Behind : at the back of something

In front of : opposite

Near : In a close position

Far : in a distant position

Places in the city

Airport – An airport is the place you go when you want to travel by plane to another city or country. Example: Soekarno-Hatta International Airport.

Amusement park – An amusement park is a large outdoor area where people can go on rides such as roller coasters and enjoy other entertainment.

Bakery – A bakery is a place where you can buy fresh bread, sandwiches and cakes.

Bank – A bank is a place where people deposit or withdraw (take out) money. You can also borrow money from a bank.

Bookstore – A bookstore is a place where you can buy books and magazines.

Bus station – A bus station is the place you go when you want to travel by bus to another place, usually another city.

Café – A cafe is a place you can buy a cup of coffee or tea and cakes or sandwiches. You normally sit down at a table to have these.

Cinema / movie theater – A cinema or movie theater is a place where you can see the latest movies. Many people eat popcorn while they watch the movie. (Cinema: British English // Movie theater: American English)

Gas station / petrol station – A gas station is the place you go to put gas (petrol) into your car or other vehicle. (Gas station: American English // Petrol station: British English)

Hospital – A hospital is the place you go when you have an accident, need an operation or when someone is going to have a baby.

Hotel – A hotel is a place where you pay for a room to sleep in when you visit another city.

Library – A library is a quiet place where you can read books or borrow books. A library has a large collection of books and magazines available. You can also study at a library.

Museum – A museum is a place where people can see many historical objects to learn about the past as well as other items of cultural interest.

Park – A park is an area of public land in a city that contains an area of grass where you can rest, play or walk your dog. Sometimes a park has a playground for children.

Police station – A police station is a place where police officers work. You are taken to a police station when you break the law and are arrested.

post office – a post office is a place where people can buy stamps and mail letters or parcels.

Restaurant – A restaurant is a place where meals are prepared and served to customers. You can go to a restaurant when you don't want to cook at home or to celebrate a special occasion.

School – A school is a place where teachers help children learn. Children normally start school at the age of five.

Shopping mall – A shopping mall, sometimes called a shopping center, is a very large building that has many stores and usually a food court too.

Exercise

- Please pay for your shopping at the _____
 - aisle
 - trolley
 - checkout
 - plastic bag
- If you have a lot of shopping to do, you can use a _____
 - basket
 - trolley
 - checkout
 - plastic bag
- If you don't have much shopping to do, you can take a _____
 - basket
 - trolley
 - checkout
 - plastic bag

The map is for number 4-6.

- The police office is _____ store and bank.
 - between
 - behind
 - beside
 - in front of

5. The school is _____ the train station.
- A. between
 - B. behind
 - C. beside
 - D. in front of
6. The movie theatre is _____ the drugstore.
- A. between
 - B. behind
 - C. beside
 - D. in front of
7. Melanie is going to travel by an aircraft. She needs to go to the _____.
- A. station
 - B. police station
 - C. harbor
 - D. airport
8. A place where you can borrow books is a _____.
- A. bookstore
 - B. grocery
 - C. library
 - D. drugstore
9. I bought some bandage from the _____.
- A. bakery
 - B. boutique
 - C. drugstore
 - D. cinema
10. There was an accident happened two hours ago. The injured have been taken to the nearby _____.
- A. post office
 - B. cinema
 - C. hospital
 - D. bank